

2. The Commission is of the opinion that the information provided by the complainant is not sufficient to establish that the respondent has committed an offence under section 2(1)(a) of the Act. The Commission is therefore satisfied that the respondent is not guilty of the offence charged.

The Commission is of the opinion that the information provided by the complainant is not sufficient to establish that the respondent has committed an offence under section 2(1)(a) of the Act. The Commission is therefore satisfied that the respondent is not guilty of the offence charged.

The Commission is of the opinion that the information provided by the complainant is not sufficient to establish that the respondent has committed an offence under section 2(1)(a) of the Act. The Commission is therefore satisfied that the respondent is not guilty of the offence charged.

The Commission is of the opinion that the information provided by the complainant is not sufficient to establish that the respondent has committed an offence under section 2(1)(a) of the Act. The Commission is therefore satisfied that the respondent is not guilty of the offence charged.

The Commission is of the opinion that the information provided by the complainant is not sufficient to establish that the respondent has committed an offence under section 2(1)(a) of the Act. The Commission is therefore satisfied that the respondent is not guilty of the offence charged.

The Commission is of the opinion that the information provided by the complainant is not sufficient to establish that the respondent has committed an offence under section 2(1)(a) of the Act. The Commission is therefore satisfied that the respondent is not guilty of the offence charged.

The Commission is of the opinion that the information provided by the complainant is not sufficient to establish that the respondent has committed an offence under section 2(1)(a) of the Act. The Commission is therefore satisfied that the respondent is not guilty of the offence charged.